Lower Township and Cape May-Lewes Ferry Announce Free Entertainment
Concerts, Movies and Fun held on the Green of the Cape May Ferry Terminal

(Lower Township, NJ) The Lower Township Department of Parks and Recreation and the Cape May-Lewes Ferry have partnered for 8 weeks of FREE outdoor entertainment, including summer concerts, family fun nights, and movies on the spacious lawn at the Cape May Ferry Terminal. These free public events will be held every Wednesday starting from July 9 through August 27. Concert and family nights begin at 5:30 p.m and Movie nights at dusk.

“The Ferry is so much more than a boat ride to Delaware, it’s also the perfect place to gather for events, fun and relaxation,” said Lower Township Manager Mike Voll. “Come out to the Cape May Ferry Terminal to enjoy great family fun, live music and entertainment every Wednesdays during the summer.”

“It’s great to be able to expand our partnership with Lower Township to benefit the community,” said Heath Gehrke, Director of Ferry Operations. “Great music and family fun at our terminal with scenic views of the Delaware Bay....it’ll be a summer to remember,” Gehrke went on to say.

Schedule of Events
