NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of mutual covenants and representations set forth in the Agreement, the parties hereby agree as follows:

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

ARTICLE I. SERVICES PROVIDED BY MMA

1.1 Obligation to Provide Services; Work Orders. MMA shall provide health and welfare consulting, and other services as and when requested by Client from time to time (collectively, the "Services" or "In Scope Services"), as set forth in Exhibit A. The parties may agree at any time to modify the Services; provided, however, that all such modifications must be in writing and signed by both parties.

1.2 Quality of Services. MMA represents and warrants to Client that the Services performed by MMA hereunder will be of professional quality, consistent with generally-accepted industry standards and expectations for work of a similar nature. MMA's employees and agents shall be adequately trained to perform such Services. ARTICLE II. COMPENSATION SUMMARY & DISCLOSURES

2.1 Annual Compensation. MMA agrees to provide the Services outlined in Exhibit A for the outlined pricing in Exhibit B: Brokerage Services Fees (the "Fees" or "Services Fees"). The form of MMA's compensation, whether by commission, fee, or both, shall not affect MMA's role as insurance broker or the scope of the Services to be provided by MMA.

2.2 Out-of-Scope Services. In the event that additional services, which fall outside the scope of Services described in Exhibit A, are requested by Client, MMA will contact Client immediately and mutually-agree on the cost and completion of these additional services. A written description of these additional services and the agreed-upon compensation will be provided each time as an addendum to this Agreement.

2.3 Compensation Disclosure. Please see Appendix A for our compensation disclosure, which we may update from time to time.

The client agrees that MMA may use all information and data supplied by the Client or on its behalf without independently verifying the accuracy, completeness or timeliness of it.

3.2 Delays or Liability. MMA shall not be responsible for any delays or liability arising from missing, delayed, incomplete, inaccurate or outdated information and data, or if the Client does not provide adequate access to its employees, agents or other representatives necessary for us to perform the Services. MMA shall be entitled to charge the Client in respect of any additional work carried out as a result.

ARTICLE IV. CONFIDENTIALITY

4.1 Confidentiality. The Client may provide MMA with certain proprietary and confidential information ("Confidential Information") in connection with the Services provided by MMA under this Agreement, including Non-Public Personal Information. Neither MMA nor any of its employees or agents directly or indirectly shall disclose to any third party or use any Confidential Information furnished by or on behalf of Client for any purpose except in furtherance of the Services rendered by MMA to Client. MMA shall take all steps reasonably required to maintain the confidentiality of Confidential Information in MMA's possession.

4.2 Transmission. The transmission of Confidential Information via electronic data transmission networks which provide for the security of users' data shall be deemed consistent with MMA's obligations hereunder unless such use is contrary to Client's express instructions. 4.3 Public Domain. The restrictions and agreements set forth above shall not apply to any Confidential Information: (i) which is in the public domain; (ii) which becomes part of the public domain through no act, omission or fault of MMA; (iii) which MMA's records demonstrate was developed independently by MMA or was received by MMA from a third party which MMA had no reason to believe had any confidentiality or fiduciary obligation to the Client with respect to such information; (iv) which is required to be disclosed by law, including, without limitation, pursuant to the terms of a subpoena or other similar document; provided, however, MMA shall, to the extent practical, give prior timely notice of such disclosure to the Client to permit the Client to seek a protective order, and, absent the entry of such protective order, MMA shall disclose only such Confidential Information that MMA is advised by its counsel must be disclosed by law; or (v) following the lapse of two years after disclosure of such information to MMA; provided, however, that MMA's confidentiality obligation hereunder relating to Non-Public Personal Information shall continue indefinitely.

4.4 Retain Confidential Information. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, but subject to the terms and conditions set forth in this provision, MMA may (i) retain copies of Confidential Information that is required to be retained by law or regulations, (ii) retain copies of our work product that contain Confidential Information for archival purposes or to defend our work product and (iii) in accordance with legal, disaster recovery and records retention requirements, store such copies and derivative works in an archival format (e.g. tape backups), which may not be returned to the Client or destroyed. MMA may retain Client's information in paper or imaged format and MMA may destroy paper copies if it retains digital images thereof.

ARTICLE V. OWNERSHIP OF WORK PRODUCT; INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

5.1 Work. All materials prepared by MMA specifically and exclusively for the Client pursuant to this Agreement (the "Work") shall be owned exclusively by the Client.

5.2 Copyright, Patent and Other Intellectual Property Rights. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this Agreement, MMA shall retain all copyright, patent and other intellectual property rights in the methodologies, methods of analysis, ideas, concepts know-how, models, tools, techniques, skills, knowledge and experience owned or possessed by us before the commencement of, or developed or acquired by MMA during or after, the performance of the Services, including without limitation, all systems, software, specification, documentation and other material created, owned or licensed and used by MMA's affiliates or subcontractors in the course of providing the Services (the "Intellectual Property"), and MMA shall not be restricted in any way with respect thereto. "Intellectual Property" shall also include all MMA-owned websites and related content. To the extent any Work incorporates any Intellectual Property, MMA hereby grants the Client with non-exclusive, non-transferable right to use such Intellectual Property solely for purposes of utilizing the Work internally in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

5.3 Indemnification. Unless MMA provides its prior written consent, the Client shall not use, in a manner other than as mutually contemplated when MMA was first retained by the Client to perform the Services, or disclose to any third party, other than Client's attorneys, accountants or financial advisors with a need to know and who are bound by confidentiality obligations at least as restrictive as those contained in this Agreement, any Work or Intellectual Property or other material supplied by MMA under this Agreement, and the Client shall be responsible for, and MMA shall have no liability with respect to, modifications made by any person other than MMA to the Work, Intellectual Property or other work product provided to the Client by MMA. The Client shall indemnify, defend and hold MMA and its affiliates harmless in respect of any Loss incurred by MMA as a result of the Client's breach of this obligation or any modifications made by any person other than MMA to the Work, Intellectual Property or other work product provided to the Client by MMA.

ARTICLE VI. REPRESENTATIONS AND YOUR RESPONSIBILITIES

The Client represents and confirms that:

6.1 the Client has full power and authority to enter into this Agreement;

6.2 the terms hereof do not violate any obligation by which the Client is bound, whether arising by contract, operation of law, or otherwise; and

6.3 this Agreement has been duly authorized and will be binding according to its terms.

Client shall be solely responsible for the accuracy and completeness of all information that you furnish to MMA and/or insurers, and sign any required application for insurance. MMA shall not be responsible for verifying the accuracy or completeness of any information that Client provides, and MMA shall be entitled to rely on that information. MMA shall have no liability for any errors, deficiencies or omissions in any Services provided to Client, including the placement of insurance on its behalf, that are based on inaccurate or incomplete information provided to MMA. Client understands that the failure to provide all necessary information to an insurer, whether intentional or by error, could result in the impairment or voiding of coverage.

Client agrees that all decisions regarding the amount, type or terms of coverage shall be its ultimate responsibility. While MMA may provide advice and recommendations, Client must decide the specific coverage that is appropriate for your particular circumstances and financial position. Client will review all policy documents provided to it by MMA. Client acknowledges that, in performing services, MMA and its affiliates are not acting as a fiduciary for Client, except to the extent required by applicable law, and do not have a fiduciary or other enhanced duty to Client.

The aggregate liability of the MMA to the Client, its affiliates and its and their officers, directors or employees or any third party for any and all Losses arising out of or relating to the provision of any Services at any time by any of the MMA shall not exceed the total commissions and fees paid by the Client to MMA for all Services provided by MMA during the twelve-month period immediately preceding such Loss. MMA shall have no liability for the acts or omissions of any third party (other than its subcontractors).

Upon termination of this Agreement, the confidentiality, ownership of work product, dispute resolution, limitation of liability, waiver of jury trial and all provisions following this termination provision shall survive in full force and effect. 10.1 Claim or Action. Any claim, action or proceeding in any forum against a party or any of its affiliates will be barred unless the other party initiates the dispute within one year of the date upon which that party (i) first discovered, or (ii) upon the exercise of reasonable diligence could have discovered, the act, error or omission that is the basis for such claim, whichever date is sooner.

ARTICLE XI. NOTICE

Any notice or other communication required or permitted to be given pursuant to this Agreement shall be deemed to have been duly given when delivered in person, or sent by overnight courier. All notices or communications to MMA should be sent to the consultant on the account at MMA's main address.

APPENDIX A COMPENSATION DISCLOSURE

Marsh & McLennan Agency ("MMA") prides itself on being an industry leader in the area of transparency and compensation disclosure. We believe you should understand how we are paid for the services we are providing to you. We are committed to compensation transparency and to disclosing to you information that will assist you in evaluating potential conflicts of interest.

As a professional insurance services provider, MMA and its subsidiaries facilitate the placement of insurance coverage on behalf of our clients. In accordance with industry custom, we are compensated either through commissions that are calculated as a percentage of the insurance premiums charged by insurers, or fees agreed to with our clients.

MMA receives compensation through one or a combination of the following methods:

- Retail Commissions – A retail commission is paid to MMA by the insurer (or wholesale broker) as a percentage of the premium charged to the insured for the policy. The amount of commission may vary depending on several factors, including the type of insurance product sold and the insurer selected by the client. Retail commission rates can vary from transaction to transaction.
- Client Fees – Some clients may negotiate a fee for MMA's services in lieu of, or in addition to, retail commissions paid by insurance companies. Fee agreements are in writing, typically pursuant to a Client Service Agreement, which sets forth the services to be provided by MMA, the compensation to be paid to MMA, and the terms of MMA's engagement. The fee may be collected in whole, or in part, through the crediting of retail commissions collected by MMA for the client's placements.
- Contingent Commissions – Many insurers agree to pay contingent commissions to brokers who meet set goals for all or some of the policies the brokers place with the insurer during the current year. The set goals may include volume, profitability, retention and/or growth thresholds. Because the amount of contingent commission earned may vary depending on factors relating to an entire book of business over the course of a year, the amount of contingent commission attributable to any given policy typically will not be known at the time of placement.
- Supplemental Commissions – Certain insurers and wholesalers agree to pay supplemental commissions, which are based on a broker's performance during the prior year. Supplemental commissions are paid as a percentage of premium that is set at the beginning of the calendar year. This percentage remains fixed for all eligible policies written by the insurer during the ensuing year. Unlike contingent commissions, the amount of supplemental commission is known at the time of insurance placement. Like contingent commissions, they may be based on volume, profitability, retention and/or growth.
- Wholesale Broking Commissions – Sometimes MMA acts as a wholesale insurance broker for certain transactions. In these placements, MMA is engaged by a retail agent that has the direct relationship with the insured. As the wholesaler, MMA may have specialized expertise, access to surplus lines markets, or access to specialized insurance facilities that the retail agent does not have. In these transactions, the insurer typically pays a commission that is divided between the retail and wholesale broker pursuant to arrangements made between them.
- Other Compensation – From time to time MMA may be compensated by insurers for providing administrative services to clients on behalf of those insurers. Such amounts are typically calculated as a percentage of premium or are based on the number of insureds. Additionally, from time to time, insurers may sponsor certain MMA training programs and/or events.

We will be pleased to provide you additional information about our compensation and information about alternative quotes upon your request. For more detailed information about the forms of compensation we receive please refer to our Marsh & McLennan Agency Compensation Guide at http://res.cloudinary.com/mma/image/upload/v1473800190/MMA_Compensation_Guide_for_Clients_rev_9.6.16_wqhfvv.pdf

We appreciate your business and look forward to your instructions regarding the placement of your coverage on the terms outlined in this document.

For direct bill policies: Notices you receive from your insurer regarding past due premiums or cancellation due to non-payment of premium shall be considered notice from Marsh & McLennan Agency LLC (MMA). As a matter of general practice, MMA does not provide notice of a potential lapse of coverage due to non-payment of premium to clients where coverage is written on a direct bill basis.

The contractor or subcontractor agrees to make good faith efforts to employ minority and women workers consistent with the applicable county employment goals established in accordance with N.J.A.C. 17:27-5.2, or a binding determination of the applicable county employment goals determined by the Division, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 17:27-5.2.

The contractor or subcontractor agrees to inform in writing its appropriate recruitment agencies including, but not limited to, employment agencies, placement bureaus, colleges, universities, labor unions, that it does not discriminate on the basis of age, race, creed, color, national origin, ancestry, marital status, affectional or sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, disability, nationality or sex, and that it will discontinue the use of any recruitment agency which engages in direct or indirect discriminatory practices.

The contractor or subcontractor agrees to revise any of its testing procedures, if necessary, to assure that all personnel testing conforms with the principles of job-related testing, as established by the statutes and court decisions of the State of New Jersey and as established by applicable Federal law and applicable Federal court decisions.

In conforming with the applicable employment goals, the contractor or subcontractor agrees to review all procedures relating to transfer, upgrading, downgrading and layoff to ensure that all such actions are taken without regard to age, creed, color, national origin, ancestry, marital status, affectional or sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, disability, nationality or sex, consistent with the statutes and court decisions of the State of New Jersey, and applicable Federal law and applicable Federal court decisions.
