Re: Professional Services Proposal for the Judge Nathaniel Foster House
1649 Bayshore Road, Villas, NJ 08251
2018 New Jersey Historic Trust HSM Grant Supported Project

Dear Ms. Crippen:

Thank you for inviting MCA to submit this proposal for the first campaign of important preservation work to occur at the Judge Nathaniel Foster House. I would welcome the opportunity to work with the Township of Lower on this project and to see my earlier efforts furthered with meaningful improvements. Below I have outlined the proposed scope of services, a draft schedule, and a lump sum fee. I hope you will find the proposal herein thorough and pertinent to your needs.

A. Project Background and Objectives

The Judge Nathaniel Foster House, erected about 1727, is significant as an example of a well-preserved early heavy timber frame house and later remodeled (c. 1826) in the Federal style. The Foster House's many early characteristics included face-nailed interior flush board walls, face-nailed rabbeted siding, exposed framing members (corner posts, joists overhead, and girts), flared corner posts, and an oak frame made mostly of hewn timbers. The remodeling in the Federal period retained many early period features and introduced many newer ones - including joists that were still exposed but were wrapped with beaded-edge boards, plaster walls and plaster ceilings, and smaller but still functional heating and cooking fireplaces—all commonly found in Cape May County during the third construction period. The Foster House is also notable for its atypical floor plan consisting of a commodious side hall and parlor with a rear kitchen ell. This plan is seen in only two of the county's 35 known earliest buildings.

The work to be covered under this proposal would delineate needed improvements for a preserved building. It would further the recommendations contained in the Conditions Assessment Report prepared by this office in 2014. It should be noted here that this proposal covers services up to the point of completed drawings and specifications (also known as Bid Documents or Contract Documents) but not the services associated with the pre-qualification of prospective bidders, the public bidding process or administration during the construction phase. The services for these aspects would follow as a separate proposal once the funds for construction are in place.

B. Scope of Work, Professional Services, and Project Team

Contract Documents

The scope of professional architectural and engineering services for this project includes the preparation of drawings and specifications to execute the following Scope of Work under one contract for construction. The work items listed below are based on the recommendations of the aforementioned Conditions Assessment Report are summarized according to the 50 Divisions of the Construction Specifications Institute (CSI)'s MasterFormat.^a

02 - Site Work

- Landscaping (to maintain and control vegetation near the building)
- Selective Demolition (removal of unnecessary items, removal of non-original asbestos siding and roof shingles).

04 - Masonry Restoration

- Repointing (rake and repoint all brick)
- Reconstruction/New Construction (rebuilding of chimneystacks above the roofline and new brick piers at summer beam beneath main block of house).

05 - Metals

- New Shoring Posts at mid-span in basement.
- Conserve fireback at Parlor.

06 - Carpentry

- Heavy Timber Framing (assumes corner posts repairs (50%), replacement of heavy timber sills (25%), and roof rafter heels at (40%).
- Exterior Finished Carpentry (repair overhanging eaves, door and window surrounds).

07 - Thermal and Moisture Protection

- Gutters and Downspouts (new gutters and downspouts in lead coated copper).
- Clapboard Siding (repair and patch clapboard siding).
- New Roofing (new cedar shingle roof).

08 - Door and Windows

- Original/Early Exterior Doors (repair 4 doors plus basement areaway entrance).
- Wood Windows (restoration of original/early units).
- Storm Windows (general cleaning, re-lubrication and installation of existing storms).
- Wood Shutters (replicate from photographic evidence).

09 - Finishes

- Exterior Painting (including prep and Lead-Safe Practices and one prime coat and two finish coats).

22 - Plumbing

- Restroom (upgrade existing 2nd floor bathroom).

23 - Heating, Ventilation and Air Conditioning

- Heating/Air Conditioning (not included).

26 - Electrical

- Panel Box and Interior Circuit Replacement.

33 - Utilities

- Install Underground Utilities.

Pending the outcome of further studies, certain aspects would not be addressed in this first campaign of preservation work at the house. The extensive treatment of interior finishes would be the result of the Paint Investigation and of recommendations Interpretive and Furnishings Plan. Similarly, proposals for HVAC and ADA/Barrier-Free Access would depend on the accepted plan for the building's future interpretation.

MCA would organize and coordinate the services of the following sub-consultants devoted to the preparation and completion of drawings and specifications and related reports:

KSI Professional Engineers, LLC (KSI), Farmingdale, NJ would serve as structural engineer and KSI Consulting Engineers, LLC (KSI's M/E/P counterpart), would serve as mechanical and electrical engineers. MCA has extensive experience working with KSI, including many projects for municipal clients with funding from the New Jersey Historic Trust and other public sources.

Keystone Preservation Group, Inc. (KPG), material conservators, Doylestown, PA would assist the effort through a paint investigation of surviving finishes. Up to 35 paint samples would be taken and analyzed to establish baseline information such as early color usage and changes over time. In addition, their mortar investigation would be limited establishing the closest match from Limeworks' line of stock mortars.^b While not based on an actual analysis and formula for replication, KPG's recommendation would be based on the use of traditional materials that provide a visual match and selection of material that would not compromise the surviving brick masonry.

International Consultants, Inc. (ICI), construction cost estimators, Philadelphia, PA would prepare an estimate at the completion of the Bid Documents. The estimate will serve as useful tool should value engineering become necessary when the project goes out to bid. It may become necessary, for example, to reduce the scope of the basic project that is put out to bid in order to achieve the essential preservation goals. Placing certain aspects as Add Alternates, such as shutters, placement of the incoming electrical service underground, and/or upgrades to the toilet facilities, may become advisable if funds are limited.

Although not directly related to the design services for the first campaign of important preservation work, MCA would organize and coordinate the services of the following sub-consultants as they prepare reports that would guide future improvements:

RGA, Inc., archaeologists and cultural resource consultants, Cranbury, NJ would prepare a Phase IA Archaeological Survey to assess and document the archaeological sensitivity of the property for site planning purposes. The following tasks will be completed:

- Background research on archaeological sites in and adjacent to the project site at the NJHPO, New Jersey State Museum, and regional and local repositories.
- Background research at the NJHPO to review National Register files, historic resource inventories, and cultural resources reports conducted within and adjacent to the project site.
- Review of the National Register nomination form for the Judge Nathaniel Foster House and information about the property in a report titled: A Survey of Heavy Timber Frame Buildings of Cape May County, NJ and in Joan Berkey's book, titled Early Architecture of Cape May County, NJ.
- A review of historic atlases and maps and documents at the New Jersey State Library and regional and local repositories.
- A review of existing environmental conditions and landscape modifications within the project site that could affect the preservation of historic and prehistoric archaeological resources.
- A visit of the project site by the project archaeologist to record existing conditions. Documentation will take place using field notes and digital photography. Examination of the cellar and crawlspace will also be conducted.
- Assessment of sensitivity for prehistoric and historic archaeological resources within the project site. Areas of sensitivity will be plotted on an aerial map.
- Preparation of a report detailing the results of the survey that will include management recommendations regarding the need for further archaeological survey (i.e. Phase IB archaeological survey), if necessary. In addition, the report would provide a necessary document prior to any ground disturbances that would be part of first campaign of preservation work. For example, the archaeological monitoring that would accompany the placement of utilities underground would rely on the survey for guidance and context.

Joan Berkey, Historic Preservation Consultant, Cape May Court House, NJ, prepare would prepare an Interpretive and Furnishings Plan. As author of the Foster House's successful nomination to the New Jersey State and National Registers of Historic Places in 2014, Ms. Berkey is in a unique and highly qualified position to assume this role. Ms. Berkey would meet with the client and other parties interested in or involved with the Foster House to determine the appropriate interpretive time period. Because the rear ell of the Foster House is almost original to its ca. 1730 construction date and the main block reflects an early 19th century remodeling, both sections might be interpreted to these respective time periods. The choice of interpretive time period will drive the focus of the interpretive and furnishings plan.

The interpretive plan would first present the social and architectural history of the building, placing its architecture and its owners/dwellers within local, state, and national contexts. This part will provide docents with ample, relevant information to share with the public. Interpretive themes based on the social and architectural history will then emerge as the most important ones that should be conveyed to the public. These might include exploration and settlement of Cape May County, early colonial courts, the house as a significant example of England/New England heavy timber frame architecture, and the way colonial families cooked and used an open hearth in everyday life. A suggested traffic/flow pattern is also discussed. Moreover, working with MCA, a suitable approach to barrier-free access under the Americans with Disabilities Act would be devised.

Based upon the choice of interpretive time periods, the furnishings plan will recommend (and illustrate) appropriate furniture, accouterments, fireplace implements, kitchen utensils, and so on. These recommendations will be made room-by-room and will be detailed rather than generalized.

The end of the report contains a summary of ownership of the land and house, a bibliography, and genealogy charts of the Foster family.

As noted above, services associated with the pre-qualification of prospective bidders, the public bidding process or administration during the construction phase are not included.⁶ The services for these aspects would follow as a separate proposal once the funds for construction are in place.

C. Proposed Project Schedule

^a The Construction Specifications Institute (CSI)'s MasterFormat consists of "50 Divisions" and is the nearly universally used standard for organizing specifications and other written information for building projects in the United States and Canada (for example, Division 05 addresses all aspect of Metals, Division 06 addresses all aspects of Carpentry, Division 08 addresses all aspects of Doors and Windows, and so on).

^b <https://limeworks.us/resources/color-samples/>

^c The Bid Phase entails the prequalification of prospective contractors for preservation work and the preparation of pre-qualification forms for interested contractors to submit, based on current NJ DCA guidelines. MCA typically assists with the advertisement of the pre-qualifications in newspapers and issue the forms to contractors. MCA would then verify references and consult with the Township of Lower and the NJHT to review findings and recommend a list of qualified contractors to create a "bidders' pool." These qualified contractors would then be invited to bid the project. During the actual bid phase, MCA would hold a pre-bid meeting and walkthrough of the project, issue addenda during the course of the bid period to answer questions or requests for clarifications, attend the bid opening, review and evaluate the contractor bid proposals (including preparation of a written analysis and recommendation for contract award), and prepare the actual contract for construction (assumed to be AIA Document A107-2007, Standard Form of Agreement Between Owner and Contractor for a Project of Limited Scope).

The Construction Phase entails MCA's observation of the work in progress at regular intervals (usually at one standing site visit/job meeting every other week). MCA would also review contractor submitted information on proposed materials and shop drawings for all work to be installed. In addition, MCA would complete site visits and regular project meetings with meeting minutes, address field conditions as they arise, review applications for payment and change orders, review and approve shop drawings, mock-ups and other submittals and complete project close out and punchlist.

^d Calculation of the base Architectural and Engineering Fee is based upon a percentage of construction as follows:

Line	Aspect	Amount	Remarks
1	2018 Estimated of Construction Costs	$349,155	See Attachment B
2	Total A/E Fee based on Construction Cost	$43,644	12.5% of Line 1

Change Order No. 1
Roseann Avenue Roadway and Utility Improvements
Contract M-10 Rebid
Township of Lower, Cape May County

April 26, 2019

Dear Mr. Douglass:

Please find enclosed herewith three (3) signed copies of Change Order No. 1 for the above referenced project.

As previously discussed, we are submitting a change order from Agate Construction Co., Inc. to install electrical conduit, as required by Atlantic City Electric, on the south side of the 200 block and 300 block of Roseann Avenue in accordance with the attached email description of work and revised plans. We have reviewed Change Order No. 1, discussed with the contractor and the Township, and authorized the contractor to proceed, as the change was necessary to complete the conduit work prior to the installation of sidewalk.

This change order is for the installation of approximately three hundred eighty five (385) feet of 2-inch electrical conduit so that upon completion of the project Atlantic City Electric may install new street lights, foundations and electrical service to the affected street light locations without major disturbance to the Contract M-10 improvements.

Change Order No. 1 includes both an increase in the contract price of $30,000.00 and an extension to the original contract period of six (6) calendar days. Upon execution of this change order the revised Contract Price will be $7,056,450.00, the revised Contract Period will be three hundred sixty-six (366) calendar days and the revised Contract Completion Date will be June 11, 2019.

Should you have any questions or require any additional information, please do not hesitate to contact this office.

Very truly yours,
