Disorderly Man Arrested For Entering Vehicles At CJ's Bar & Grill

On Saturday, August 8th at 11 pm, Lower Township Police Communication's Center received a call from CJ's Bar & Grill in the North Cape May Section of the township reporting a male subject going through a female employee's vehicle in the front parking lot.

When confronted, the subject attempted to flee from the area, but was chased and tackled by a bouncer of the restaurant who held the man down until police officers arrived at the scene.

Patrol Officers, Dallas Bohn and William Barcas, arrested the subject identified as Jan Michael Erdman, age 20 of the 1000 Block of Star Avenue, Villas, New Jersey, for Burglary and Theft from a motor vehicle.

Erdman was highly intoxicated, disorderly and belligerent towards the officers.

While being processed at the Lower Township Police Department, Erdman deliberately attempted to damage police property and equipment.

Erdman is lodged in the Cape May County Jail on $10,000 blanket bail after being charged with the following offenses.

Two (2) counts of Theft of Movable Property
Possession of Drug Paraphernalia
Possession and Consumption of Alcoholic Beverages by a Minor
Criminal Mischief (4th Degree)
