Motor Vehicle Accidents and Domestic Violence Keep Lower Township Patrol Officers Busy Over The Weekend

From Friday evening, September 25th through Sunday evening, September 27th, Lower Township Patrol Officers were kept busy responding to multiple motor vehicle accidents and domestic violence calls.

On Saturday evening, during a two hour period between 7 pm and 9 pm, Lower Township Patrol officers responded to four domestic violence incidents, three of which involved assaults that required mandatory arrests.

Patrol Officers were so busy responding to domestic violence calls that when a motor vehicle accident, with injuries occurred at the intersection of Fishing Creek and Bayshore Roads, at approximately 9:19 pm, the Middle Township Police Department had to be called for mutual aid to assist with traffic at the motor vehicle accident scene.

Over the weekend patrol officers responded to eight (8) motor vehicle crashes, completed 25 motor vehicle stops while responding to seven (7) domestic violence incidents, three of which involved assaults. Patrol Officers responded to ten (10) emergency medical calls over the weekend, four (4) trespassing complaints, five (5) theft complaints, seven (7) disorderly conduct calls and completed 13 property checks, along with numerous other nuisance complaints and calls for service.
