FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

LOWER TOWNSHIP POLICE ARREST MAN FOR BURGLARY AND THEFT AT LOCAL CHURCH

On Saturday, January 15th, at approximately 12:30 p.m. the Lower Township Police Communication Center received a report from Pastor Scott Durbin of the Seashore Community Church, indicating that someone had forced entry into a trailer used by the church and had removed a cash register from the church's store.

Further investigation on scene determined that entry was gained to the structure by the actor smashing out a window.

Once inside, the suspect(s) removed the cash register from the church's store and a small safe from the church's office, while removing approximately $500 in cash from the church property.

Lower Township Detectives later located the cash register and safe in a dumpster in the church's parking lot, both of which had been severely damaged.

Detectives also took several photographs of the suspect's footprints in the snow and retrieved blood samples left at the scene after the actor had apparently cut himself during the burglary.

After several days of intense follow up investigation into the burglary, Lower Township Detectives arrested Joshua R. Revak, age 21, of the 100 Block of Bayberry Avenue, Villas, New Jersey, at his residence.

Revak was transported to the Lower Township Police Department where he was charged on an arrest warrant for Burglary to a structure and theft of Moveable Property.

Revak was subsequently lodged in the Cape May County Jail in default of a $20,000 cash bail set by Lower Township Municipal Court Judge, Thomas Hillegass.

Judge Hillegass also issued a no contact order between Revak and the Seashore Community church.
